"Around the Clock" at WPCS means that there are 1560 students and 73 teachers under the supervision of Prin. C. F. Adams who move about Whitney Point Central School each day attending classes, sharing activities and conversations, making friendships and developing talents. All of these things round out a student's life as he acquires his education to enable him to take his part as a worthy citizen in today's society. The 1959 Maroon and Gold is made up to show what the student body has accomplished throughout the school year.

SUPERVISING PRINCIPAL Caryl E. Adams

Prin. Caryl E. Adams works 24 hours a day as Supervising Principal of WPCS.

To Our Seniors:

Congratulations on your graduation! We are proud of your achievement! Make the future even more successful than the present and we will know our pride is justly deserved by each of you. There is only one thing in this world which the good Lord has given in equal quantity to everyone. It is TIME. We each receive a full twenty-four hours a day, not one minute more or one minute less. The important Thing in Life is "How will you spend your time?" Will you fritter it away in daydreaming, loafing, envy, jealousy, useless anger? Or will you use it to achieve new worthwhile goals, to live the kind of a life that brings credit to yourself, your family, your community, to help your fellow man, and to make this troubled old world a better place because of you? The years will go by and the answer will be written in your record. May it be the finest made by any class.

VICE PRINCIPAL Osmer J. Brooks

SWING BAND

The Swing Band opened the season by playing for several Student Council-sponsored dances following the Friday night basketball games. They replaced the Senior Band as musical background for the Junior Play, and as usual were a featured attraction in the Spring Concert.

SENIOR BAND

Senior Band of W.P.C.S. was a very busy organization during the school year of 1958-1959. The forty-eight musicians lent their support to the football team at all home games, and were very much in evidence at both the Halloween parades. After supplying music for the Senior Play, the band next turned their attention to boosting the basketball teams at the Friday night games and at pep rallies. The biggest project of the year, of course, was the annual Spring Concert, followed almost immediately by the most important parade of the year on Memorial Day, in which the Seniors in the band played with the organization for the last time. The Senior Band finished its year's work by playing for both the Baccalaureate and Commencement exercises.

JIVIN' FIVE

Except for a change in drummers, the Jivin' Five presented the same personnel as last year; Joe Ralston, Ed Lamb, Dean Thomas, and Carl Decker made up the experienced portion of the combination, and little Jim Ralston took over in the rhythm department. The boys had quite a successful year, playing for one school dance, a P.T.A. Talent Show, and the Christmas Talent program, and being featured with the Swing Band in the Spring Concert.

LIBRARY CLUB

Many accomplishments have been made by the Library Club in its first year. Being mainly school service it reorganized the library, compiled a large section on N. Y. S. and local history, and has built up a guidance section. In social activities, a tea for the faculty and parents was given, a Christmas party for members was also given, besides trips to libraries at Broome Tech and Harpur. Members range from the 7th to the 12th grades.

Meet Me In St. Louis

Here's a bird's eye view of what goes on off the stage. Applying make-up to Jo Pier and Bev Zimmer are Louise Verry and Arlene Bush. In the background are Kay Kennedy, Dean Thomas, and Esther Paynter.

Meet Me In St. Louis

It's 1904! The crowd is gathering! What's happening? The World's Fair in St. Louis is about to begin, and to attend this great exhibition is the intention of the Smith family portrayed by members of WPCS Class of '59. Situations that they faced on the stage made the three acts of this comedy enjoyable for the audience. Meet Me In St. Louis was presented November 12, 13, and 14, 1958, in the school auditorium. The class netted $331 profit on this comedy. Credit for making this play a success is given to Miss Muriel Mock, the director, also to the prompters Marcia Wegrzynski and Suzie Prentice. The Srs. were grateful to Mr. Thomas Lawson for supervising the stage crew.

Junior Play

Meet Corliss Archer, a 3-act comedy by Mr. F. Hugh Herbert, was presented by the Class of 1960 on March 11, 12, and 13 in the WPCS Auditorium. Sandi Kim, as Corliss, portrayed a teen-age girl who decided to re-do her character after her mother cracked down and would not let her go to the movie because of the untidiness of her room. A fake diary, snoopy Cousin Agnes, and appendicitis tended to hold the audiences in suspense and laughter.

Corliss: And this is my mother and father.

Corliss: And this is the doctor and nurse that helped me get well.

Corliss: And this is my friend Dexter.

Football

Coach Jack Halloran's Eagles landed six wins in the 1958 fall season for a 1st place trophy. The Eagles were Co-champions along with Newark Valley who handed the Eagles one of their losses of the season.

Winning from the start, the Eagles defeated Deposit 28-0 under lights. This winning streak kept up and there fell four more victims in a row. Groton, Greene, Windsor, and Sidney. Then the game, the big game, came. The Eagles were to play Newark Valley who had suffered one loss. If the Eagles did win, first place was theirs. But they lost 14-6. The next week they came right back to defeat Walton on the home field. In the final game of the season the Eagles were defeated by Chenango Valley 38-0, one of the heaviest defeats in W.P.C.S. football history.

Football careers ended for Ed Lamb, Dan Ticknor, Dale Gage, George Lynch, Blaine Maus, Rick Steilen, and Robert Ingraham. Returning lettermen in 1959 will be: Jim Zopp, Elroy Pratt, Tom Farr, Hugh McCulloch, Jerry Kenyon, Pat Farrell, Ken Stickle, Glenn Whitmarsh, Harry Turkington and Dick Peet. VARSITY "W" CLUB

Varsity Club meets every Wednesday during Activity Period. Its members have attended numerous college football and basketball games. To add to its treasury the Club sold boxes of Christmas wrapping paper, sold refreshments at football and basketball games and, in cooperation with the Pep Club, sponsored a dance. From its funds, the club helped pay for a 7 man-sled for football practice. The big annual event for the club is always the Varsity W Banquet at the end of the year.

Pep Club

PEP CLUB HISTORY--1958-59

Pep Club officers and members have brought the year of 1959 to a successful end by accomplishing many things in the way of support to WPCS teams. Posters for every game were made by the poster committee with the help of Mr. Richard Smith, Industrial Arts Teacher. Pep Clubbers were given permission to leave 7th period classes and study halls early for Pep Rallies in order to start the Rallies off with a bang. Programs were sold during the football and basketball games by members of the club. A special scoreboard of all Varsity basketball games was erected on the Sports Bulletin Board by the members. One could find the Spirit of the Pep Club at most of the football and basketball games by their effort to back up the cheerleaders in yells. Before the 1959 school year ends, the Pep Club and Varsity "W" Club planned to jointly sponsor a record hop, Finale Fling.

VARSITY BASEBALL
 Coach Paul Minacci's 1958 baseball team compiled one of the better records of a W.P.C.S. team in recent years. Although they did not win the league championship, they came close and contrary to predictions that they would win only 2 or 3, they won 7 and lost 3. This season ended 4 years of varsity baseball for Jerry Hodges, three for Dick James, and one for newcomer Tom Stocum. 1959 season will see 2 year men Tom Farr and Pat Farrell plus Clayton Hawkes, Eric Steilen, Chuck Green and Ed Lamb.
